

The Loose Tooth

Alexis Drennan

Like a tiny little mirror bite sized reflections of me you're amazing and so hopeful of what you'll come to be

I don't want to let you down please don't mimic my mistakes please remember that you're beautiful these words will never be fake

Please don't forget your innocence It's so easy to lose you see like change on a rollercoaster or the remote to a tv

Please don't forget the feeling There's a whole world to explore Don't lose your imagination your hopes, dreams and more

Don't forget to hold your breath while wishing on stars and railroad tracks
'cause the hand's moving around the clock
