

Something You Can't Wish Back

Alexis Drennan

Life is a movie without a pause a story with no bookmark from training wheels to driving cars and there's hardly time to park

You don't have to be the greatest You've been perfect to me all along In time you'll come to see the years are so short but the days are so long

Don't listen to the people who try to knock you to the floor try to always love freely the way you did when you were four
